Community Outreach Focus: Farmers' Market Ministry

Thank you to all of our faithful servants who have helped make this year's Farmers' Market a great success so far. This is one of our most exciting outreach programs because we as individuals have the chance to touch the lives of REAL people in our own community! Our jump house, craft table and water jug is free for all. We get to remind the people we meet about what kindness, love and being a Christian is really about. As we share our stories and listen to the tales of others in our neighborhood we develop bonds which the Holy Spirit uses to water even the driest of seeds. We live in an area where a shocking 93% of people are NOT a part of church family. Our community is watching us and this is a grand opportunity to glorify God and to be kind and welcoming to those around us. Thank you for helping us to show the love of God and sharing the joy of knowing Christ.

If you haven't yet had a chance to be a part of this fun outreach, come check it out on Tuesdays from 4:30pm-7:00pm during the summer. Each shift is an hour and fifteen minutes in length. Sign up online at <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0c4daba923ab9-Tuesday>. For more information, please contact Mia Fischer miaf@fpcsm.org.

In Christ lies our best example of the communion God desires to effect with man. God wants His nature and our redeemed nature to be so blended and interwoven as to create a whole new nature.

Today

New Director of Music and Worship

After filling in for us as guest worship leader often during recent months, we are thrilled to announce that Steven Finau has been hired (30 hours per week) as our Director of Music and Worship! Starting July 1, you will be able to reach Steven through the church office and at stevenf@fpcsm.org as he begins this slightly reconfigured position. Born in Auckland, New Zealand, Steven grew up traveling the South Pacific (and specifically Australia, New Zealand, Tonga, and Fiji) leading worship and doing ministry. Steven has been married to his beautiful wife Tivise ("T") for five years. His favorite passage of scripture is John 21:12 where Jesus said, "Come and have breakfast." Steven loves Raisin Bran cereal, playing ping pong, and watching football. His all-time favorite football player is Peyton Manning and his favorite worship leader is Ron Kenoly.

Why Worship?

The rose on the organ celebrates the birth of June Natalie Cohen on Friday, June 15. Parents, Rory and Alana, and grandparents, Don and Sue Parry, are so grateful to God for this new addition to their family!

Would you consider "Serving the Prisoner"?

The Community Outreach Team has an opportunity to partner with Hillcrest Chaplaincy to help bring the Good News to youth incarcerated in the San Mateo Juvenile Hall, but to do so we need someone in our congregation to serve as a "liaison" with this ministry. The liaison is simply someone who checks in regularly with the ministry and communicates their needs to our congregation. Could God be calling you to this easy, but very important ministry? Contact Colleen White at colleen.al.white@gmail.com to find out more!

Join an Usher Team

Would you like to be involved in an easy, fun, and rewarding ministry? Consider joining a once-a-month usher team. No experience is necessary, training is provided; all that's needed is a friendly smile and a heart to serve your church family and our guests on Sunday mornings. This is a great way to get connected, meet people, and develop new friendships. For more information, contact David Chiechi at dmchiechi@att.net or 650-288-2419.
